Statement of Nondiscrimination

The University of Jamestown confirms its support of the principles and practices of nondiscrimination and equality of races and sexes in its employment and in all of its programs, activities, and opportunities available to students. The University of Jamestown also affirms a commitment to nondiscrimination and reasonable accommodation of those students who are disabled. It is the expressed intent of the University of Jamestown to be in conformity with all laws relating to higher education which are consistent with our commitment to the Christian ethic, including Section 504 of the Rehabilitation Act of 1973 and the Americans with Disabilities Act of 1990. Students who believe they may have a qualifying disability should request a complete copy of policies and procedures available from the Office of Admission, the Learning and Academic Advising Center, the Vice President for Student Affairs or the Vice President for Business Affairs.

Payment for tuition, fees, room and board is due prior to the start of each semester.
